Anne McCue

Coming to us from Australia by way of Nashville, Cooldog is pleased to present an evening of guitar goodness the likes of which you won't see again any time soon. As one of the foremost female guitarists of our time, Anne has been invited to play at the Jimi Hendrix Tribute Concert at the Adelaide Guitar Festival alongside world renowned guitarists such as Vernon Reid and John Hammond. Anne has appeared as guest guitarist/vocalist on albums by Michelle Shocked, Gina Villalobos and Stephen Rowe and has been featured in Guitar Player Magazine, No Depression, Harp, Performing Songwriter, Billboard, Australian Musician etc...

Her song 'Stupid' is included on the Time Life release '4 Decades Of Folk Rock' which features such legendary artists as Bob Dylan, The Byrds, Crosby, Stills and Nash, Suzanne Vega and Patty Griffin. "Initially, her stunning voice hooked me in. Then I got inside the songs. The first chance I got, I went to see her perform ... I was floored! The combination of her tom-boyish beauty mixed with the precision and assertiveness with which she approached the guitar, her surrounding languid and earthy vocals created an intoxicating blend." --- Lucinda Williams "This new album is such a beauty. The song Beautiful Thing is stunning. I love every song on this record...maybe because Anne McCue is my Aussie clone!" --- Nancy Wilson (of Heart)

Larissa Moore

With her soulful voice and skilled guitar playing, Larissa Moore is no stranger to the music scene. Being the daughter of a local musician has given her a lifelong exposure to the local music scene. From her very first performance at a Delmarva Friends of Folk Coffee house through today, Larissa has been a popular performer at local open mics, churches, and talent shows since the age of 15. Larissa has had experience playing with a few local bands and her current project is the new group The Lusionistics. Now 23, she writes and performs her own material and has learned piano and bass guitar. Larissa's eclectic musical sets consist of original material as well as contemporary covers of various popular artists.
